(Constituted in the Republic of Singapore pursuant to a Trust Deed dated 5 December 2006 (as amended))

SGX-ST Announcement: 14 March 2011

Asahi Ohmiya Warehouse, Tokyo Japan – no apparent structural damage to the warehouse

AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT Management Limited, the manager (the "Manager") of AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT (the "Trust") wishes to announce that our asset manager in Tokyo has indicated that there appears to be no structural damage to the Asahi Ohmiya Warehouse located at 1-398-3,11,13 Yoshinocho, Kita-ku, Saitama, Tokyo, Japan ("Property"). The Property is located approximately 345 kilometres from the epicenter of the earthquake which struck Japan on Friday 11 March 2011.

Guodou Kaisha Bayside ("GK Bayside") executed a sale and purchase agreement ("Sale and Purchase Agreement") with Industrial & Infrastructure Fund Investment Corporation ("Purchaser") on 21 February 2011 for the sale of the Property for a consideration of JPY1.49 billion. The Trust, via its wholly owned Singapore subsidiary, Japan Industrial Property Pte Ltd ("JIP"), has an effective interest in the Property of 99.2% by virtue of the Tokumei Kumiai Agreement dated 28 September 2007 between GK Bayside and JIP. Completion of the sale of the Property was originally scheduled to take place today.

The Trust's asset manager in Japan has received legal advice that the Purchaser has no right to rescind the Sale and Purchase Agreement. However, GK Bayside must carry out any repairs, if required, before completion of the sale of the Property. The investigation of the Property by an engineer is currently being arranged by the Purchaser in conjunction with the Trust's asset manager in Japan. Completion of the sale of the Property will be rescheduled to the first practicable date following completion of the investigation and any required repairs.

The Manager will provide further updates when available.
