Media Release

AA REIT gains further financial flexibility as bank frees further five assets from security

Singapore, 19 November 2014 – The Manager of AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT (AA REIT) today announced that five assets, valued at S$283.6 million<sup>1</sup>, have been legally freed from serving as bank security. These five unencumbered assets together with the previous eight unencumbered assets<sup>2</sup> were valued at S$527.2 million<sup>1</sup> about 42.9 per cent of the current total appraised value of the Singapore portfolio of S$1.23 billion as at 30 September 2014.

Chief Executive Officer of the REIT manager, Koh Wee Lih said: “The release of these assets reflects our banking syndicate’s confidence in the Trust’s solid financial position. Our interest cover ratio for 2Q FY2015 is a healthy 4.2 times, well above our bank covenant of 2.5 times.

“The Trust is in a strong financial position, with growing cashflows, high occupancy and an attractive development pipeline. Releasing these assets provides further financial flexibility and strengthens the balance sheet,” he said.

The Trust maintained aggregate leverage of 32.2 per cent as at 30 September 2014, averaging approximately 30 per cent for 20 consecutive quarters since December 2009.

The following five properties have been released from serving as bank security.
