AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT announces uplift in Optus Centre valuation

Singapore, 29 January 2015 – Pursuant to Rule 703 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual, AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT Management Limited (the Manager) as manager of AIMS AMP Capital Industrial REIT (the Trust) today announced that the valuation of its 49 per cent interest in Optus Centre, Sydney, Australia rose by A$10.1 million (S$11.2 million)¹ or nearly 5.5 per cent to A$195.02 million² as at 31 December 2014, from A$184.73 million³ as at 31 March 2014.

Chief Executive Officer of the Manager, Mr Koh Wee Lih said: “Optus Centre’s valuation uplift was largely due to compression in the capitalisation rate⁴.”

“Optus Centre is a high quality asset, 100 per cent occupied by Australia’s second largest telecommunications company Optus, a subsidiary of SingTel. In September it achieved a 4.5 star NABERS Energy rating, which is a positive reflection of the asset’s environmental specifications.”

“The Manager has achieved a respectable track record of steadily increasing the Trust’s asset values. We are pleased with the sustainable growth of our portfolio. The Trust’s high quality properties are performing well, delivering sustainable returns for Unitholders over the long term.”

Independent and qualified property valuer, Savills Valuations Pty Ltd was appointed to conduct the valuation for Optus Centre, Sydney, Australia in which the Trust has 49 per cent interest.

A copy of the valuation report for the property is available for inspection at the Manager’s registered office during the normal business hours for three months from the date hereof.
